NOTICE SERVED BY DS for Respondent No. 1

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE A.R.DAVE

Date of decision: 15/10/2003

ORAL JUDGEMENT

RULE. Service of rule is waived by learned advocate Shri N.J. Shah appearing for Shri D.N. Patel, Sr. Standing Counsel. At the request of the learned advocates, the petition is finally heard today.

2. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner wanted to get his place of birth changed in his passport and, therefore, has given an application dated 10.09.2003, but the said application is not being entertained by the respondent. It has been submitted by learned advocate Shri A.M. Parekh appearing for the petitioner that the petitioner is having passport bearing No. E-4065201, wherein his place of birth has been recorded as Ladhod. The said place of birth had been recorded on the basis of school leaving certificate presented by the petitioner along with the passport application form.

3. It has been submitted by the learned advocate that after issuance of the passport, the petitioner has learnt that his correct place of birth is Bodeli as reflected in his birth certificate. In view of the said fact, he wants the correct place of birth to be recorded in his passport.

4. The petitioner has, therefore, prayed that the respondent authority be directed to issue a new passport with the correct place of birth of the petitioner as shown in the birth certificate.

5. Learned advocate Shri N.J. Shah appearing for the respondent authority has submitted that only on the basis of material given by the petitioner, his place of birth was recorded as Ladhod. It is his case that no change in the passport is effected, but for making any correction in the passport, a new passport is normally issued by the authority with correct details if the passport authority is satisfied with the genuineness of the data to be corrected.

6. I have heard the learned advocates. Looking to the facts of the case, the respondent is directed to look into the application dated 10.09.2003 submitted by the petitioner and the evidence adduced by the petitioner to the respondent in support of his case that his place of birth is Bodeli. The respondent shall take appropriate decision in accordance with law after considering the relevant evidence adduced before him and shall pass an appropriate order thereafter.

7. As the respondent authority will have to undertake the exercise of scrutinizing the application, appreciating the evidence, etc. afresh because of the default committed by the petitioner in not placing correct facts at an earlier point of time, a sum of Rs. 5,000/- is ordered to be paid by the petitioner to the respondent authority by way of costs.

8. It is hoped that the respondent authority shall scrutinize the application and shall take appropriate action as soon as possible.

The petition is allowed. Rule is made absolute. D.S. permitted.
